About Antigua Guatemala

The tournament will be held in the colonial city of Antigua Guatemala, a UNESCO World Heritage Site and one of the most important and well-preserved colonial cities of Latin America. It is located 45 minutes away from Guatemala City. Antigua Guatemala is a wonderful place with a unique culture, great for tourism, easy access to and from the airport, with a wide array of hotel accommodations, restaurants for all taste pallets, local markets, vivid street life, and one of the most beautiful golf courses in the world.

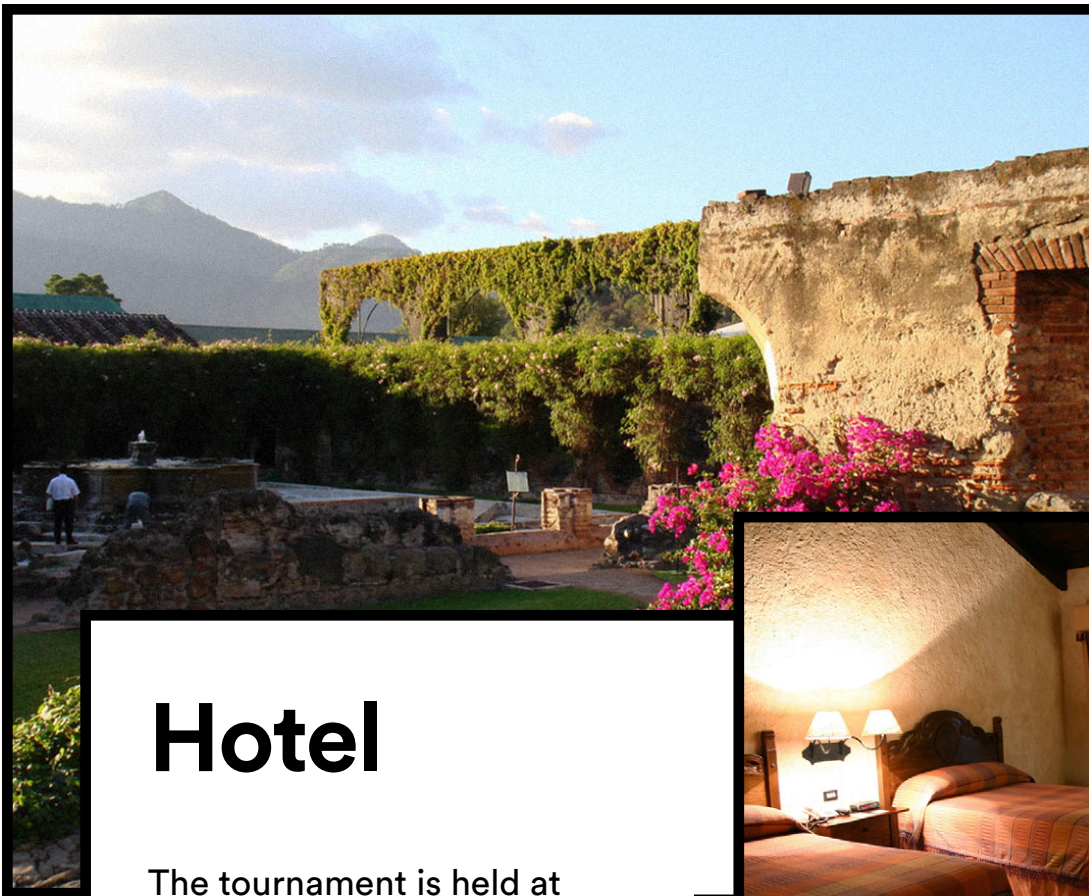

Tournament Fees and Rules

US $160
For the Pair Events

US $500
For the Transnational Teams

Fees are to be paid in cash or with a major credit card at the tournament check-in. If you pay with credit card there will be a surcharge of 7%. Payment should be done in person prior to the start of play at the tournament check-in.

Hotel

The tournament is held at the fabulous Hotel Casa Santo Domingo, Antigua Guatemala's premier hotel. We highly recommend you book your stay at this hotel, since the tournament is being played there. We have also organized a lunch buffet to facilitate the tournament schedule.

To keep things simple, the tournament committee organized a special rate with the hotel already includes taxes and breakfast. This is important if you compare prices online, as many online sites do not include taxes (22%) and breakfast in the hotel rate.

US$185 Individual Room
(breakfast and taxes included)

US$200 For Double Room
(two breakfasts and taxes included)

To book your hotel room and register for the tournament you must go online to www.guatemalabridge.com and complete the registration form. Be sure to use the Promo Code 349721 when you book the hotel.
